Meet the Couples to be Married by Clerk Bock in Valentine's Day Ceremony

Continuing her Valentine's Day tradition, Clerk & Comptroller Sharon R. Bock, Esq., is partnering with the National Croquet Center and other local businesses to give 40 couples a holiday wedding to remember. Meet some of the couples who will be getting married or renewing their vows at this year's Valentine's Day Group Wedding Ceremony.

Irwin & Judith are celebrating their 77th wedding anniversary by renewing their vows on Valentine's Day. The couple met on a beach in Long Island, New York in the summer of 1939. Irwin is 98 and Judith is 96.

Dennis & Johanna met 30 years ago. After dating for 2 years, they went their separate ways. However, they stayed in contact and rekindled their relationship on Valentine's Day 2018. Dennis retired from the military last year and moved to Florida to be with Johanna.

Terrance & Carrie met in 2012, but eventually lost contact over the years. In 2018, their paths crossed again, and they have been together ever since. Terrance proposed on Jan. 11, while the couple was attending a family game night.
