Start Your Summer Vacation with a Trip to Our Office

Let our passport team help you get travel ready for the summer. Our courthouse locations in Delray Beach, Palm Beach Gardens and Belle Glade will host special Saturday hours from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on March 7 & 21 to help with all your passport needs. No appointment is necessary, and we can take your passport photo.

Clerk & Comptroller Celebrates Sunshine Week

Our office is responsible for protecting, preserving and maintaining Palm Beach County's public records and public funds and providing on-demand access to this public information.

Every year in March, during "Sunshine Week," we celebrate the right to access public information by reaffirming our commitment to government transparency. The annual observance begins this year on March 15.
