PALM BEACH COUNTY PRIMARY ELECTION UPDATE

Palm Beach County, FL – Palm Beach County Supervisor of Elections Wendy Sartory Link is reminding voters they can vote this weekend, and encouraging voters to cast their ballot -- whether in-person or by mail -- as soon as possible.

Palm Beach County's in-person Early Voting continues daily through Sunday August 16, with 18 sites open 10 a.m. – 7 p.m. Voters can vote at any Early Voting site during this period, and should visit our home page at pbcelections.org to find a convenient location and check the wait time. Health and safety measures for in-person voting include social distancing, masks, gloves, and ongoing cleaning.

Voters can also drop their Vote by Mail ballots off at Early Voting sites during Early Voting hours. With less than a week to go, the office has already received more Vote by Mail ballots than were cast by mail in the 2016 or 2018 Primary Election.

Voters are also encouraged to drop off their Vote by Mail ballot to our office at 240 South Military Trail to ensure it is received on time. All Vote by Mail ballots must be in to the Palm Beach County Supervisor of Elections Main office no later than 7 p.m. and by 5 p.m. to any of our outer offices to be counted on Election Day. Vote by Mail ballots cannot be turned in at Election Day polling places.

To find unofficial voter turnout for today, and throughout Early Voting, visit pbcelections.org.

Turnout by method, party, precinct, location, and date is updated throughout the day.
