November 2020 Newsletter Topics

National Veteran and Military Families Month:

Military families endure long separations and frequently must adjust to new living situations and communities. Unfortunately, scammers are not concerned about protecting or caring for our military families.

International Fraud Awareness Week:

November 15-22 will be the annual observance focused on minimizing the impact of fraud by promoting anti-fraud awareness and education.

iPhone Chatbot Scam Spread through Text Messages Phishing Scam:

The iPhone 12 was released in October, and many consumers anxiously anticipated the launch of the “new era for iPhone with 5G.”. Unfortunately, scammers were aware of that excitement and attempted to capitalize on it through an iPhone 12 chatbot scam via text message.

Threatening Phone Scams Targeting Parents and Immigrants:

Two disturbing phone scams have popped up on the Federal Trade Commission’s (FTC) radar. Both scams have one thing in common: they want to trick (and scare) you out of money.

Stay Food Safe This Holiday Season:

Did you know one in six Americans will get foodborne illness this year? Stay safe from foodborne illness this holiday season by handling your turkey properly and cooking it to a safe temperature.
