

LAKE WORTH DRAINAGE DISTRICT

Reflections Newsletter

Monthly e-Newsletter for residential associations and property managers
January 2021

Iguana Control for Residents

There are a variety of options and techniques property owners can use to help reduce nuisance iguanas. Many of these strategies are easily employed. To learn more, click on the link below for a copy of Iguana Control For Residential Property Owners: Frequently Asked Questions.

FAQ's Iguana Control

Good Time for Drainage Checkup

Now that the rainy season is over, it is time for a drainage check-up. LWDD offers many helpful tips and an instructional video titled 'Getting To Know Your Drainage System' which can be found on our website. Take advantage of this dry-season to inspect and maintain your community drainage system.

Maintenance Tips & Video

Landowner's Meeting

On January 6, LWDD held its Annual Landowner's Meeting. Board of Supervisors elections took place. Jeffrey P. Phipps, Sr. was elected to Sub District 3 and John I. Whitworth, III was elected to Sub District 5. Executive Director Tommy Strowd, P.E. provided an overview of the District's 2020 accomplishments. You can watch a recording of Mr. Strowd's presentation by clicking on the link below.

Landowner's Report

Don't Miss Important Information

Get LWDD information sent to your email. Simply fill-out the form located on our website. You can change your subscription preferences or unsubscribe at anytime. Join the hundreds of other residents and professionals and start receiving your e-Notices today!

Sign-up for e-Notices

