Special Election for House District 88

Florida Governor Ron DeSantis recently scheduled a Special Election to fill a vacancy that now exists in Florida House of Representatives, District 88, after the state legislator currently representing House District 88 resigned to run for U.S. House of Representatives, District 20. The Special Primary Election for State House District 88 has been scheduled January 11, 2022; the Special General Election will be March 8, 2022. Our Elections Office is working with the Florida Division of Elections as we plan for the Special Election.
