

PALM BEACH COUNTY ELECTIONS REPORT

A monthly newsletter to keep you informed about elections and your elections office.

Successful Special Elections

There were two Special Elections in Palm Beach County this past Tuesday, January 11th: a Special General Election for U.S. Congressional District 20 and a Special Democratic Primary Election for Florida House District 88. Nearly 20,000 Palm Beach County voters cast their ballot in these Special Elections by mail, at an Early Voting location, or on Election Day. A big THANK YOU to the voters, poll workers, and our Elections Team for helping to make sure voting was conducted safely, securely, and accurately. Election results can be viewed online at VotePalmBeach.gov.

Upcoming Elections

Our Elections Office is prepared for several more elections in Palm Beach County scheduled for March 8, 2022. The winner of the recently concluded Special Democratic Primary Election for Florida House District 88 will be on the Special General Election ballot, along with the Republican candidate that qualified. Additionally, our office will be conducting elections for 19 municipalities across the county that have contested local races.
