Statewide Bills of Interest:

Many bills are making headlines statewide. Here are just a few of those major topics discussed last week:

Vote on School Board Salaries:

SB 1300 – District School Boards: Modifies district school board member salaries, possibly reducing the salary of school board members in 49 school districts and increasing the salary in about 18 districts. Additionally, it includes certain requirements for instructional materials.

On Tuesday, with a committee substitute, this passed the Education Committee with a vote of 6Y, 3N. It is now in its final committee stop: (S) Rules.

Ban on Early Abortion:

The House Health Care Appropriations Subcommittee heard and passed HB 5 on Thursday. After hours of public testimony, debate and questioning, the ban cleared with a vote of 10Y, 5N. The bill bans abortions after 15 weeks and does not give exceptions for rape or incest, but would only allow for abortions in extreme cases of serious medical emergencies affecting the mother, or if fatal fetal abnormalities are present. During this committee meeting, 3 amendments were proposed:

- The sponsor's amendment, which passed, increases the appropriation request to $1,602,000 for the fetal and infant mortality review committees.
- Representative Skidmore's amendment would require that the cost of attaining a 2nd physician certification is covered by Medicaid, private insurance and kid care. This amendment failed: 5Y, 10N.
- Representative Smith, C.'s amendment would provide protections and prohibit intimidation tactics: 5Y, 10N

House Professions & Public Health Subcommittee approve legislation allowing health care providers to follow their conscience:

HB 747 Passed with a 12Y, 6N vote on Tuesday. The bill allows health care practitioners and insurers to deny services based on conscience. The vague language may open the door to discrimination in health care and does not clarify whether this still applies during emergency situations.

Advanced Air Mobility:

On Tuesday, the House Tourism, Infrastructure and Energy Subcommittee unanimously passed HB 1005, proposing a 20-member Advanced Air Mobility Task Force. The group would evaluate and plan for vertical take-off as well as focus on the potential for electric air transportation
