

2022 Canvassing Board Workshop

PBC Canvassing Board members and select elections office staff attended the Florida Supervisors of Elections' 2022 Canvassing Board workshop last week. It was great to meet with over 400 Supervisors, Judges, Attorneys, County Commissioners, and key staff from elections offices from throughout the state of Florida. Elections offices across Florida are preparing for upcoming elections this Fall, while working to keep elections in our state secure, fair, accurate, and transparent. The next election in Palm Beach County will be the August 23, 2022 Primary Election. Voters must register or change party affiliation by July 25th. Don't delay, visit www.VotePalmBeach.gov today!

Student Sticker Design Contest

Drumroll!!!! The Palm Beach County Supervisor of Elections office challenged Palm Beach County Middle School and High School students to design new "I Voted" and "Future Voter" stickers for Palm Beach County voters. The deadline to submit completed entries was Friday, April 1, 2022, and hundreds of Middle and High School students across our community have submitted entries to design our new sticker. Local "celebrity judges" are currently voting to select the first place and runner-up entries, which will be announced by Monday, April 10th. Watch out for the winning artwork on our website www.VotePalmBeach.gov or on social media @VotePalmBeach.gov.
