Support Dr. Joaquin Garcia High and Clerks for Arts

Support the 2D and 3D art classes of Palm Beach County's Dr. Joaquin Garcia High School through a donation to Clerk for the Arts. 100% of your tax-deductible donation will go directly to the school to help buy needed art supplies.

Clerks for Arts offers students the unique opportunity to create works of art for public display at Clerk of the Circuit Court & Comptroller office locations throughout Palm Beach County. The pieces are displayed for a year before being sold at an online auction to benefit the school. Money raised is used to buy art supplies for the next group of students.

How Your Clerk's Office is Part of the County's Checks and Balances

Your Palm Beach County Clerk's office has more than 1,000 constitutional duties, many of which are established to support other county government offices. This division of duties, or separation of powers, provides an important safety net for everyone in our community.

How does our office act independently from the County, and what roles do we have to help keep local government fair and balanced?
