Clerk's Office Completes Statewide Best Practices

Chief Deputy Clerk Shannon Ramsey-Chessman accepted our Best Practices award for completing all 10 best practices this year at the Florida Court Clerks & Comptrollers 2026 Summer Conference.

This is the sixth year FCCC has held the Best Practices Excellence Program and our office has achieved Best Practices each of those years.

Deputy IG Anthony Palmieri Awarded Statewide Recognition

Congratulations to Deputy Inspector General Anthony Palmieri for being awarded with the Florida Court Clerks & Comptrollers (FCCC) Best Practices Clerks' Staff Recognition at the group's Annual Conference in Orlando on Wednesday, June 24.

Anthony is pictured with Clerk Ken Burke of Pinellas County, FCCC's Cheri Wright and Clerk Doug Chorvat Jr. of Hernando County.

Congratulations to Our Student Finance and Justice Interns

We were honored to host the latest cohort of our Summer Justice and Finance Literacy interns, who wrapped up the program on Friday, June 19.

From mock trials to 'Shark Tank'-style finance exercises, local student interns were able to explore government operations, learn about ethics and discover how records are kept and managed.

They come away from the program with invaluable career skills.

Chief Legal Officer Amy Borman, Esq. Named to Statewide Court Committees

Congratulations to our Chief Legal Officer & Chief Operating Officer of Courts Amy Borman, Esq. who has been reappointed by Chief Justice John D. Couriel to the Local Rule Advisory Committee (LRAC) for a two-year term and appointed to the Advisory Workgroup on the Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Forms for a one-year term.
